

Ioanna Kosma (female) holds a BSc in Marine Sciences and a MSc in “Integrated Coastal Management” from the University of the Aegean, School of Environmental Sciences, Department of Marine Sciences. Her research background focuses on Marine Biodiversity and Ecology in combination with Scientific Diving and she also has experience in Marine Immunology. She has extensive field work experience, and she has participated in Scientific excursions in Cyprus, Kuwait, and Greece. From 2019 she has been working as a Research Associate at the University of the Aegean (Department of Marine Sciences) and particularly in Marine Remote Sensing Group, participating in various work packages and deliverables. During this time, she has also gained experience in Administrative skills, Project Management duties and Secretariat responsibilities.